

WINE & DINE

NEW EATS

The Jamaica Blue café bar is a café by day and bar by night. It's the perfect spot to slow down, take a breather and enjoy a cup of coffee or a glass of wine. During the day, the kitchen dishes up a menu of freshly made savoury and sweet fare, including all-day breakfasts and light meals. After 5pm, the menu switches to a selection of premium wines, beers, spirits and cocktails. Enjoy a free small-sized coffee/hot beverage with a minimum meal order of $12.90. Available till 28 Feb 2015 and not valid with any other offers or discounts.

Satisfy your cravings for Korean fare at Bornga where you'll find creations such as Bornga Bulgogi (above picture) and Haemul Duck Jjim (seafood and vegetable combo with prawn, crab, mussel, squid, octopus, fish cake, bamboo sprout, mushroom, Chinese cabbage and rice cake mixed with spicy sauce). Korean-style bar grub like Haemul Pajon (seafood pan cake) or Tteokgalbi (beef pan cake) make perfect pairings with soju.

Promotion: Happy hour soju priced from just $11 per bottle.

Bite into a Pappa Bun ($2.50), the newest snack from PappaRich. The fragrant bun is filled with butter, topped with coffee cream and freshly baked till golden brown and crisp on the outside.

Bibigo's menu is undergoing a revamp but their popular signature dishes are still around such as their char-grilled bulgogi beef. Concoct your own hot stone bibimbap (mixed rice bowl) from four types of rice, five meat toppings and three kinds of sauce (kohot, citron soy and sesame).

Be sure to check out
Grandma's Nyonya
menu which boasts classics like Ayam
Buah Keluak, Babi
Pongteh and Itek Sio.
From $6.90 to $12.90
per dish.